

Lake Washington/Cedar/Sammamish Watershed - WRIA 8

WRIA 8 Salmon Tour Itinerary

Friday, October 10, 8:45 AM – 2:45 PM

Park in Commodore Park parking lot on south side of Hiram M. Chittenden (Ballard) Locks
(3330 W Commodore Way, Seattle 98199)

Meet at the Ballard Locks Fish Ladder Plaza above the fish viewing window

Cell phone #'s for day-of contact: Jason Mulvihill-Kuntz 206-617-8160 Linda Grob 206-619-1586
--

- 8:45 a.m. Welcome and Check-In: Ballard Locks Fish Ladder Plaza
- 8:55 Introductions and Tour Overview
Larry Phillips, Chair, WRIA 8 Salmon Recovery Council, King County Council
Jason Mulvihill-Kuntz, WRIA 8 Watershed Coordinator
- 9:05 Hiram M. Chittenden (Ballard) Locks
Peggy Marcus, Natural Resource Manager, Lake Washington Ship Canal
Lynne Dial, Cedar River Naturalist, Friends of the Cedar River Watershed
- 9:55 Travel to Mapes Creek Daylighting Project Site
- 10:30 Mapes Creek Daylighting (City of Seattle)
Julie Crittenden, Seattle Public Utilities
- 11:00 Travel to Issaquah Creek Integrated Fish Passage Project Site
- 11:30 Issaquah Creek Integrated Fish Passage Project (City of Issaquah/Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife)
Kerry Ritland, City of Issaquah
Tim Ward, Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife
- 12:00 Travel to Redmond
- 12:30 p.m. Lunch at Redmond City Hall
- 1:10 Travel to Lower Bear Creek Restoration Project Site
- 1:15 Lower Bear Creek Restoration Project (City of Redmond)
Roger Dane, City of Redmond
- 1:45 Return to Commodore Park
- 2:45 Arrive at Commodore Park and Adjourn

*Restrooms Available